

Media Notes - Asian Le Mans Series

Race 1 & 2: Dubai Autodrome Circuit / Race 3 & 4 Yas Marina

Welcome to the 2023 Asian Le Mans Series! In this document is all the information you will need ahead of the coming season. If you have any questions, please get in touch asianlemans-media@lemans.org

Media Pass Collection:

On arrival at both circuits you will be required to show your ID and sign a waiver.

At Yas Marina you will then receive a wrist band to show you have signed the waiver. You will need both your pass and this wrist band to move around the circuit.

If you arrive on or before Thursday please go directly to the media centre to collect your pass.

If you are arriving later please follow these directions:

Dubai Autodrome Circuit:

Please show your ID at the security on the grandstand tunnel and they will let you in.

Yas Marina Circuit:

Please collect your pass from the ticketing booth located outside the paddock gate.

Thursday: midday – 8pm

Friday: 8am – 9pm

Saturday: 8am – 10pm

Sunday: 10am – 10pm

Yas Marina Circuit – Media Centre will be located in the conference centre this season:

Thursday: 9am – 9pm

Friday: 8am – 9pm

Saturday: 9am – 10pm

Sunday: 11am – 11pm

Parking:

Dubai: Media parking will be in GOLD parking near the Grandstand. Please see attached map.

Abu Dhabi: Gold 1 Parking (there will be directional signage on-site), no pass is required.

Media Shuttle:

Details will be available in the Media Centre.

Safety Briefing & Tabards:

In order to take photos or film at the Asian Le Mans Series, you need to attend a safety briefing, held in the media centre (See below for timings). Once you have done this, you will be allowed to collect a tabard.

Photographer Briefings will be given at the following times by the Media Delegate:

Dubai: Wednesday: 1pm / Thursday: 1pm / Friday: 8am & 1pm

Abu Dhabi: Friday: 8am & 1pm

* If you cannot attend the scheduled times you must let the Media Delegate know by Wednesday 8th February

Please read through the safety guidelines carefully before working trackside. Any photographer, team PR, or journalist found to be in breach of these guidelines will have their pass revoked and be removed from the circuit immediately. If you are working at both circuits, please keep your tabard for the duration of the Season. You must return your tabard to the media centre at the end of the event.

Press Interviews:

Post-Qualifying: The pole sitting drivers will be interviewed as a part of the live broadcast only.

Post-Race: Race winning teams will be interviewed as a part of the live broadcast. If you wish to access this area to interview the winning teams, please speak to the Asian Le Mans Series Media Delegate.

Podium access: Only the official Series photographers are permitted on the podium. Other photographers and media will be welcome under the podium however priority MUST be given to the Series photographers.

Series #'s:

Please use these on all social media posts about our race.

Broadcast coverage:

The Asian Le Mans Series will be available live, and for free around the world via the extensive streaming broadcasts of qualifying and the races. The races will also be streamed on multiple Chinese platforms with Chinese commentary. Post-race, there will be a tv highlights package that will be broadcast globally.

Filming for social media:

Filming for social media purposes by an accredited individual (media / team / driver) in designated areas is permitted up to a maximum of 60 seconds.

Videography – filming requests from media / teams / drivers:

All ENG film crews requesting camera access must get in touch with Laura Cotterill (laura@lc-tv.com) concerning the TV rights ASAP. Laura will process the request and advise of the applicable TV rights fees that need to be paid. Permission to film will ONLY be granted once the fees are paid and accreditation paperwork has been correctly submitted. This CANNOT be done onsite so please ensure this has been arranged prior to the 5th February.
